REPUBLICAN JUDICIAL CONVENTION

The Republicans of the Nineteenth Judicial District, composed of the counties of Mason, Fleming, Lewis, Greenup, and Bracken, will tion-meet in convention at Maysville, Ky., on Tuesday, October 4th, 1892, at I o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney for said Judicial District.

The representation from the various The representation from the various we are authorized to announce F. W. counties to said Convention shall be based upon the Harrison and Morton vote cast in the ensuing city election. upon the Harrison and Morton vote cast in said counties in 1888, each county being entitled to one delegate for every one hundred votes or fraction over fifty thereof cast at said election. Said counties will govern themselves accordingly in selecting delegates to said Convention. JOHN P. MCCARTNEY, Chairman District Committee.

To Republicans of Mason County.

Pursuant to the call of the Chairman of this Judicial District Committee, a convention will be held in Maysville on Tuesday, October 4th, at I o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney.

It was agreed in the County Convention held in this city on September 12th that the delegates appointed to the Ashland Convention should also be considered delegates to the Judicial Convention, and they will act as

A resolution was also offered and passed at said County Convention, instructing the delegates to the Judicial Convention to vote for the nomination of A. M. J. Cochran as the Republican candidate for Circuit Judge.

THE Ashland Signal says a number of old soldiers in this District want to know why Mr. PAYNTER shirked the vote on the general pension bill. Come up, success Tom; come from under cover and explain the reason.

Он, no; it isn't "un-American" in The Kentucky Journal when it argues that American workmen haven't skill or sense enough to make a tin plate.

OUR contemporary of The Bulletin will probably be shocked when he learns that Colonel ALEX. K. McClure of the Democratic Philadelphia Times insists on voting the Republican ticket.

It doesn't look very much like The Ashland Signal was burning up with Democracy when it says JOHN McCAET-NEY " is just the man to knock the socks off Mr. PAYNTER, as the latter will find out before November."

THE report that certain immigrants arrived at Philadelphia have been compe'led to take a bath will do more to check immigration than all the proclamations that can be framed. Let the Government have the report telegraphed to all the countries of Europe at once.

THE Democratic Legislature of Kentucky is just now between the Devil and Governor Brown. It is not at all improbable that the so-called Election Law nor without a full investigation as to its legality, will be declared inoperative. Several very eminent Democratic lawyers have expressed grave doubts as to the validity of the bill, and the Frankfort He was aged about 65 years. correspondent of The Louisville Times says if it is not re-enacted by October 4th it must "stand the test of the Courts, and perhaps of a Republican Federal

A FALSE FRIEND.

He is Lying in a Louisville Hospital With Four Bullet Won, ds in His Body. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 28.—Charles Snyder, an unmarried man of this city, visited another man's wife once too ble nature, and not to exceed three lines, on this often, and he is in the surgical ward St. Mary's and Elizabeth's hospital with three bullet holes in his body. He will never again be a woman charmer, for one of the bullets from the wronged husband's pistol cut off his nose. Snyder and Henry Allen have been good friends for years, but never until recently had a breath of suspicion been directed toward Snyder. He often visited at Allen's house, but the latter only learned two days ago that these visits often occurred while he was absent from home. Tuesday evening the crisis to Snyder's liasons came. Allen left home after supper, but returned unexpectedly a few minutes later. He had forgotten something, and to take the shortest route he went in the back way. As he did so, Snyder was seen in the back yard talking to Mrs. Allen. He attempted to escape, and reached the rear fence, but a bullet in the shoulder stopped him. Four other shots were fired, and Snyder was wounded in the right side of the head and his nose was shot off. His condition is critical. Allen escaped and can not be found. DIED WHILE AT WORK.

Sudden Death of an Old Man While Cutting Corn Near Muncie.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 28.—Tuesday morning near Cowan, south of Muncie, an unknown old man fell dead while at work in a corn field. He applied to Farmer John Bates, and was given work in a field, cutting corn. The old gentleman fell behind his companions in work. They missed him, supposing passed by it, and approved by the Gover- he had gone, until they returned and found him dead, with a corn cutter in one hand, and an overload of corn fodder in the other. The man is about five feet six inches tall, weighed about 115 pounds, and wore full gray beard. wore new underclothing, gray jeans clothes, and slouch hat and new shoes. Two small testaments, each badly worn, were the only articles found on him. The name of John Johnson, Grizzel, Grayson county, Tex.; also Cedar Mills, Grayson county, Tex., appeared on the fly leaves of the books. On one book read, "A present from a friend, R. B. F. Reed, April 2, 1891." He stated that he had resided in Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Illinois and Missouri. The remains were buried Tuesday evening, after an inquest by Coroner Driscoll, who named the ailment paralysis of the heart.

MURDER BY WHOLESALE.

A California Man Charged With Having Killed Forty Children.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28 .- A short time ago a man calling himself Dr. Henry C. Beale, his wife, known as Nellie Haven, and Hattie E. Graham CINCINNATI DIVISION CHESAPEAKE AND OBIO were arrested, charged with the murder by malpractice of Mary Carroll, the young daughter of a Petaluma county farmer. Beale forfeited $10,000 bail and disappeared, but the women are still in prison. According to the story of a Mrs. Montrose, Beale has committed a number of murders in this city. The woman says that Beale used her house for ten months as a private hospital. During that period he had about fifty patients, there were no fewe children born alive in the house, not one of them being permitted to live. Beale either chloroformed or drowned his helpless victims, after which he weighted their bodies and threw them west and South.

Catholics Parade. NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 28.—The parade which inaugurated German Catholic day Monday evening, and in which 7,000 persons participated, was followed Tuesday morning by a pontifical high mass at St. Peter's church, the celebrant being Archbishop Corrigan, of New York. The church was filled to overflowing, and afterward the society of German priests in America, the executive committee of the convention, elected officers for the year 1893.

Fuo at the Fair. Mr. Stenling, Ry., Sept 28.—During the fair Tuesday Miss Bessie Lamb, of Wheeling, W. Va., was relieved of her pocketbook, containing $30, by a sneakthief. An omnibus containing the members' of Saxtons' band, en route to the fair, collided with a horse and buggy, completely wrecking the buggy and maiming the horse so badly that he had to be killed.

A Mammoth Mushroom

CINCINSATI, Sept. 28.-Mat. Felz, a conductor on a Spring Grove avenue car, was presented with an enormous mushroom Tuesday, weighing three and a half pounds. It was pronounced by old mushroom gatherers as the largest ever found in this vicinity, and was raised at Mr. Roetle's garden, corner of Spring Grove and Linden av-
